

Lockdown Diaries

A Day in the life of Lockdown 2020

The Challenge:

Do you remember writing Lockdown diaries?

We collected your entries and are saving them for a compilation to be published in a book marking these strange times later this year.

We are now looking for an additional entry to be included almost a year on!

Your Task...

This afternoon we would like you to write a diary entry that describes recent events and your thoughts and feelings about school reopening this week and returning to full classes.

You may wish to include...

- Your remote learning experiences
- If you've attended school during this most recent lockdown.
- Any events that you have celebrated?
- Memorable moments and finally...
- School reopening this week and being reunited with your friends and teachers.

Your Tasks

- Task 1- create a timeline of key events of your lockdown and emotions graph e.g.

The start of the New Year in lockdown –
schools closed-

School reopening 8th March

Half Term

Written Task 2.

- From your timeline chose 2 or 3 key events from the last three months.
- Start to add more detail including your thoughts and feelings before writing your diary entry.
- Aim for 2 to 3 paragraphs
- Remember to include features of a diary- see below

include the date and/or time that the entry was written?

write in the first person?

use past tense for the main events?

tell events in chronological order?

include personal emotions and feelings?

use paragraphs to organise my writing (including an introduction and conclusion)?

use an informal style?

use time conjunctions and adverbials?

- Finally illustrate your diary entry.
